THE KEY TO ADVENTURE TOUR: If you are an outdoor enthusiast Vicksburg has everything you are looking for. Buckle your seatbelts and head our way!

Day 1: Check into your hotel or bed and breakfast and get ready for an adventure of a lifetime. Start with a relaxing evening of great food and views in this historic city. Head to a river overlook for a picture perfect sunset and then go have a great dinner to fuel tomorrow's adventure.

Day 2: The life of the United States is the Mississippi River and there is nothing more adventurous than a kayaking trip down it. You can choose a full or half-day trip with Quapaw Outpost guide Layne Logue and he will custom design a tour you will never forget. There is no rush like traveling along the largest river in the United States. Have lunch on a sandbar while you take in all the beautiful nature of the river. For the fishermen of the group you can go out with Blue Cat Guide Service and catch a monster catfish and more. If the river isn't your speed head over to the Southern Heritage Air Foundation and go on a plane ride over the Mighty Mississippi. Make sure to go on one of the planes that can do aerobatics for upside down views that will spin your senses. After flying high plan to tour Vicksburg with a guided tour of the Vicksburg National Military Park and a Historic City Tour and make sure to check out the Jesse Brent Lower Mississippi River Museum to learn about the river and its many inhabitants. Head out to dinner to relive the day with friends and plan for more fun tomorrow.

Day 3: Head to Tara Wildlife for an open-air bus tour of the property that is home to abundant wildlife and some of the best birdwatching anywhere in the nation. Spend some time in the lodge or fish for your supper. They will cook it for you while you relax with a game of pool. Tara Wildlife offers some of the best hunting on the planet and people come from all over the world for that experience. Make sure to book your adventure early as the spots fill up quickly. There is so much to do in Vicksburg for outdoor enthusiasts that you might have to stay for a few more days!
